ZOMBIE PROM - Grades 9-12

CANDY

Physics exam today, Toffee. Oh, gosh Toff! Couldn't you die?! One more quarter and we're out for good. I'm holding on by my fingernails, Toffee! By my fingernails! That Mr. Taylor is such an ogre. I was so worried last night, I chewed my nails raw. Wanna see?

MISS STRICT

Mr. Warner, I couldn't help noticing that the name on your jacket is missing a letter. Do you really think that's wise? Defiling a good name like that? No, no. Change it back, Johnny. Just know I don't stand for hoodlums around here. That's "Hoodlums," Jonny. With an H! Get to class, everyone!

JOSEPH AND THE AMAZING TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT - Grades 5-9

NARRATOR (1)

Some folks dream of the wonders they'll do before their time on this planet is through. Some just don't have anything planned. They hide their hopes and their heads in the sand. Now I don't say who is wrong, who is right, but if by chance you are here for the night, then all I need is an hour or two to tell the tale of a dreamer like you. We all dream a lot - some are lucky, some are not, but if you think it, want it, dream it, then it's real. You are what you feel!

NARRATOR (2)

Way, way back many centuries ago, not long after the Bible began, Jacob lived in the land of Canaan, a fine example of a family man. Jacob and sons depended on farming to earn their keep. Spent all of his days in the fields with sheep. Jacob was the founder of a whole new nation, thanks to the number of children he'd had. He was also known as Israel, but most of the time his sons and wives used to call him Dad!
